ASSOCIATION OF HOME BUSINESSES PRESENTS

GUS HILL
Owner-Operator

MAKE IT SO Printing,
a Print Media Broker

Being a print media broker means not being tied to one or two pieces of equipment. Instead, Gus Hill, Owner and Operator of Make It So Printing, has access to literally tens of thousands of wholesale printers, locally and nationally, giving him the ability to get his customers virtually any kind of printed matter they need. With 30+ years' experience, Gus has the know-how and sources to provide his printing customers the best quality products at the best price. Gus will share:

- A brief history of printing and where it's at today.
- Some technical advice on how to prepare your files for printing (or how to find someone to do that for you).
- Some ideas on how small businesses can use printing to generate new business.

JOIN US on the 3rd Thursday, Sept. 19, 2019 • 6–9 PM
at the S.M.I.L.E. Station, 5210 SE 13th Avenue, Portland, Oregon

$10 includes dinner, presentation & networking
